About us

World Student Christian Federation- Europe. www.wscf-europe.org. We are a small umbrella NGO having member movements across Europe. Our Berlin based staff, together with a group of motivated volunteers, work for our members and interested people to realize our vision of just and peaceful communities in our societies. We work with young people and students to primarily create bridges across barriers of religion, Christian denominations, nationality and gender. We raise awareness of key issues of our times and educate and empower youth. Can you help us make our vision have tangible impact?

The role

We are looking for a creative person that can help us design our advertising/marketing materials. It is an unpaid internship with an opportunity to learn a lot. You can live anywhere in Europe as the work will be done via emails.

What will you do?

Designing and developing layouts for promotional materials (brochures, posters, flyers, etc.) To be responsible to incorporate current design trends into each unique layout to produce an up-to-date style.

What should you have?

Experience in design and graphics. Understanding of Adobe Photoshop and Adobe Illustrator programs. Skills at judging correctly what will appeal to target audiences. Sketching abilities.
